Coming next year

Public Safety Operations and Training Center

Construction on the new Public Safety Operations and Training Center—approved by the voters in 2011—got underway in August. The center will be next to Fire Station 5 on D.B. Wood Road.

The facility includes a 76,000 square-foot, two-story building for the Georgetown Police Department including offices, evidence storage, and a physical agility training room. The main building also includes Fire Administration offices, the emergency communications (911) center, and an emergency operations center. Other elements of the facility include a driving track, indoor tactical training building, and an enclosed firing range.

The facility will feature a number of sustainable design features such as LED lights in parking lots, fixed window louvers to deflect direct sun, and high-efficiency roofing, heating, and air conditioning systems.

The new facility replaces the current main police department building at 809 Martin Luther King, Jr. Street, which is the 12,200 square foot former power plant and water works building built in 1910.

The architectural design team for the center includes Architects Design Group from Winter Park, Florida and KAH Architecture from Round Rock. Bartlett Cocke General Contractors, headquartered in San Antonio, is the construction contractor. The $29.3 million facility is scheduled to be completed by the end of 2014.

District 2 Election

A special election for council District 2 will be held in November after Troy Hellmann stepped down in July. District 2 includes the south-west and west areas of Georgetown. Bonnie Stump has filed to run in the District 2 election and Keith Brainard also has announced that he will run.

The last day to register to vote for the November election is October 7. According to the Texas Secretary of State, a photo ID will be required for voting in the November 5 election. For details, go to votetexas.gov.

Early in-person voting will be Oct. 21 – 26 and Oct. 28 – Nov. 1. Election Day is Nov. 5. For early voting times and locations and vote center locations on Election Day, go to wilco.org/elections.

Websites Named Tops in the State

RedPoppyFestival.com won for best website and VisitGeorgetown.com won for best mobile site at the Texas Association of Convention and Visitors Bureaus annual conference in August. Both sites were designed by City of Georgetown Webmaster Erin McDonald and Rhyme and Reason, a design firm in Atlanta. Content was provided by Marcy Renneberg in the Georgetown Convention and Visitors Bureau. The sites employ responsive design, which delivers a website content optimized for any type of device, including smart-phones, tablets, or computers.

Red Poppy Call to Artists

The Red Poppy Festival planning committee is issuing a call to artists for the 2014 Red Poppy Festival artwork. The deadline to enter is November 1. The winning art will be used for the official festival poster.

The winning artist also will receive a $500 cash award, free booth
